

Would Your Business Be A Good Fit For An Internship Program?

- Provide a “work training site” to teach individuals the soft skills to get them work-ready for good paying jobs.
- Once qualified, WorkSource Southwest Georgia pays an Intern, $9/hour for up to 35 hours per week for a 12-week period, while working with you in your business.
- WorkSource will then assist the individual in securing full-time employment.
- If you’re really impressed with the individual’s work and have a full-time position available, WorkSource may be able to assist with an On the Job Training program. OJT reimburses you for up to 75% of their salary for up to 6 months while they get the training they need for a full-time career with your business.
